

Creative Launchpad are a support service for the Creative Industries. If you're just starting to promote and sell your work and think you might need to register as self employed or if you offer services such as workshop leading as a freelance, we can help. Whatever you are doing at the moment, it's no exaggeration to say that creative people often have to be pretty inventive in order to turn their creativity into cash. Creative Launchpad offer the following services for free to eligible people:

One to one advice - Just talk through your ideas and get help with considering funding, marketing development, training, advice and more.

Training - From NLP and Stress Awareness to Internet Marketing.

Qualifications - Gain free professional qualifications to help you succeed, from a Professional Trainers Award to ILM Level 2 Exploring Enterprise.

Guidance and Signposting - to partner organisations, funders and networking opportunities.

Networking Events - A chance to meet like minded people in a relaxed informal setting.

Monthly E- Newsletter - Jam packed with news, events and opportunities in the East Midlands

You can contact us at our Nottingham office, based in Broadway Media Centre, on 0115 9503730 or by email on b.winter@creativelaunchpad.co.uk

Very best wishes for the future

Bianca, Carla, Jon and Kelly
The Creative Launchpad Team

the Business of being Creative just got easier

x

